Dear Mother
I have just received your letter of the 14th inst. and was glad to hear from you. I am well and hope these few lines will find you the same. I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the same place. I have been thinking much of late about the future. I feel that I must be preparing myself for what may come. I have been reading much of the Bible and trying to live up to its teachings.
I have been thinking of the Lord's Supper and how I should prepare myself for it. I have been thinking of the cross and how I should follow in the footsteps of Jesus.
I have been thinking of the resurrection and how I should live in the power of the new life. I have been thinking of the kingdom of God and how I should strive to bring it into the world. I have been thinking of the love of God and how I should love Him and my fellow men. I have been thinking of the Holy Spirit and how I should be led by Him.
I have been thinking of the church and how I should be a member of it. I have been thinking of the future and how I should live in the light of the eternal life.
I have been thinking of the Lord's Supper and how I should prepare myself for it. I have been thinking of the cross and how I should follow in the footsteps of Jesus.
I have been thinking of the resurrection and how I should
